

Parents, are your children experiencing:

- Anxiety or worry?
- Stress about social interactions?
- Difficulty managing change?
- Emotional exhaustion?

If you've answered YES...I welcome your little one to join a small group of fun-loving and eager kids, as we make it FUN to get to know ourselves better.

Session description:

Using a combination of yoga for kids, meditation/mindfulness, and counselling/coaching, we will address all those life-things that kids of this age group are exposed to; providing them with 'tools' to be happy & strong! Fun exercises, books and discussions to help children acknowledge their positive attributes, manage their emotions and develop age-appropriate social skills in a fun, loving, safe environment.
